

Terms of Use and Copyright Statement

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy of reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

1. I have read the above statement and understand that the copy/copies provided to me will only be used for private research and/or educational purposes.
2. I understand that any liability that may arise in the use of a copied PA History Society archival materials is assumed in full by me. The PA History Society accepts no responsibility for unauthorized use of collection material by patrons.
3. I understand that if the copied material is to be used in any capacity other than private study, the copyright owner of the materials, whether the PA History Society, a corporation, or an individual, will be properly acknowledged. It is the sole responsibility of the researcher to ensure that the appropriate copyright clearance for any materials to be published has been met.
4. I understand that if I want to use PA History Society archival materials - whether from their website or records, and whether in digital or print format - in endeavors other than research or educational purposes and outside the boundaries of fair use, I must notify and seek permission from the PA History Society. (For example, publishing a full page of correspondence from Thomas Godkins in a report or in a documentary instead of merely citing it in an article or report).
5. I understand that in no event will the PA History Society and its employees be liable for any liabilities, losses, costs, damages and expenses arising from or directly or indirectly related to my use of, or inability to use, the archival materials.

I, (print name) _____, by signing this document state that I have read the above notices and policies, understand them, and will comply by them. (sign)
