Searching for Photographs

The PA History Society Photography Collection can be searched for it two ways: through our search button on the PAHx website (www.pahx.org) and more easily through our PastPerfect™ Database.

Searching Photograph Collections on Website

To search for photographs on the PAHx website, simply locate magnifying glass and SEARCH button in the upper right corner of any page on the website and type in the name of the person or subject you wish to search for.

*NOTE: Not only will a website search pull up photographs, but any other material that meets your search criteria. If the website SEARCH results do not display the person's name or the photographs that you are looking for or if you want a more streamlined search results, please visit the complete photograph collections catalog available on the PastPerfect™ Database.

Searching the PastPerfect™ Database

Once on the Photography Collection webpage (https://pahx.org/photos/), please click on the gold "Search Photograph Collection" button to open the PastPerfect™ Database.

Please contact us about photographs or other images that you own and would like to donate to our collection and let us know should you have additional information about any of the images displayed on this website, such as date, names of people in photograph, photographer, contributor, etc.

NOTE: Some items in our collection may be copyright protected. Please review our Terms of Use.

You will now see the PAHx's complete collection of photographs!

If you want to search for a specific person, event or theme, locate the search box on the top of the screen.

In the search box write the name of the person, event, theme, or even date that you are searching for. For names, this can be either the first name, last name, or full name. Then press the blue SEARCH button.

*NOTE: Some people might be listed under their full first name, even if they go by a nickname. Make sure to try different variants of a person's name (ex. Will or Bob for William, and vice versa).
